Name: Maikeru Ashley

Gender: Male

Age: 18

Guild: Sabertooth

Personality: Maikeru is known as "The Celestial Terror" , he a very feared person, infamous amongst guilds and criminals alike. He dressed in Celestial Clothing supplied to him by Andromada, and is rather temperamental and bad-mouths everyone, especially Sting, whom he has quite a rivalry with.

Back-story: Maikeru Ashley was born the son of a successful mob boss, which seemed good from the outset, until everyone started using him to suck up to father, Robert Ashley. His father and mother had always been the only ones he could truly rely on. From the ripe young age of eight, his father had taught him the basics of business and leadership.

So when the gang turned on his father and left him cold and hungry in the street, only sixteen, he had just the skill set to survive on his own. He lived the rough life of an alley rat; stealing and fighting in order to scrape by. Through all of this, he developed his own philosophy on life. To live for himself, and only lean on those with the strengths and abilities that would benefit him.

Guild Mark Location and color: Right Shoulder, White

Magic: Celestial God Slaying Magic

Celestial God's Bellow (å¤©ç¥žã•®æ€’å•· Tenjin no DogÅ•): The breath attack associated with his particular God Slayer Magic, Maikeru is capable of gathering celestial magic in his mouth and then generating from the very same spot a powerful blast of celestial magic, which is fired towards the target as a ranged assault:

Celestial God's Crushing Impact: Maikeru generates a celestial magic in both of his hands then slams them on the ground causing it to be pulverised into many pieces by the excess shock, which are then scattered like flower petals.

Force Gate Closure (å¼·åˆ¶é–‰é–€ KyÅ•sÄ“ HÄ“mon): Maikeru is able to force the gate of a Celestial Spirit to close against their will, prompting them to return to the Celestial Spirit World. When using this ability, it is possible that if a spirit has been absorbed by someone, the absorber may go to the Celestial Spirit World as well.

Multiple Summons: Maikeru has gained the advanced ability to summon more than one Celestial Spirit at once: able to keep two Celestial Spirits' gates open nearly effortlessly. This provides him with greater flexibility as he is able to combine the aspects of his Spirits powers and abilities to form new and more powerful attacks. He can also use his own Magic in combination with another Spirit to increase the power of an attack.
